Where am I covered?

The coverage applies worldwide.

What are my obligations?

Upon signing the contract

- The Insured is required to pay the premium.
- The Insured must answer truthfully to the questions asked by the Insurer, in particular in the declaration form enabling the assessment of the risks covered.

In the event of a claim

- The Insured must declare the claim within 5 working days after becoming aware of it, except in cases of fortuitous events or force majeure.

In all cases, the Insured must provide the Insurer with all supporting documents necessary for the implementation of the insurance cover and assistance services provided for in the contract.

When and how should payments be made?

The fee is payable upon signing the contract, using any payment method accepted by the travel agency.

When does coverage begin and when does it end?

Coverage begins on the day the policy is taken out. Coverage expires on the last day of the trip, with a maximum duration of 90 consecutive days.

How can I terminate the contract?

Right of withdrawal

In the case of a distance sale, you have the right to withdraw from this contract within a period of fourteen (14) thirty calendar days from its conclusion, without fees or penalties. However, if you benefit from one or more free insurance premiums, meaning that you do not have to pay a premium for one or more months at the beginning of the contract, this period shall only begin once all or part of the first premium has been paid.

This period begins to run:

- a) Either from the day the distance contract is concluded;
- b) Or from the day the insured party receives the contractual terms and conditions and information, in accordance with Article L. 222-6 of the French Consumer Code, if that date is later than the one mentioned in (a).

Please note: The right of withdrawal does not apply to insurance policies with a duration of less than one month.

Contract termination

When you exercise your right of withdrawal, the Insurer via Option Way is required to reimburse you the amount of the premium paid.

However, the full premium remains due to the Insurer if you exercise your right of withdrawal after a Claim covered by the contract has occurred during the 14-day withdrawal period.

For any withdrawal request, you may contact Option Way.
